

SDA Textbook Policy For Students 2017-18

- Each student is responsible for all textbooks checked out under his/her name and they are subject to fines if books are lost or damaged.
- Textbooks will be issued by your individual teachers and must be returned to the same teacher that issued it.
- Lost/stolen books must be paid for in full in the Finance Office. There is a charge of $15 for returned checks. Refund checks are processed and mailed by the district office if books are found and later returned.
- A student does not receive credit for returning a book that belongs to someone else.
